OLD BUSINESS

Starlighter's Boutique – went well; staffing was good with 3 people.

July 4th – Karen Bake sale – Janet will not be able to help; need a volunteer or two to help occasionally; will raffle three or four pies; Lisa will help Karol with USA cookies.

Fire Dog – Breakfast – Cindy D – we will make 350 and sell @ $6 this year; Cindy K. will be contacting possible volunteers next week.

Fire Dog – Lunch – Linda – will handle this year.

Raffle – Karol – will not mail any tickets; will hand out to members if they want; quilt will be displayed on July 4th, and raffled at the Labor Day sale.

Prizes & Donations – Becky – continuing to get prizes; Lisa also trying to get prizes and will be the co-prize person

Vendors – Linda – All vendors have been notified; have a few new vendors

Coffee – Laurie – Simplify the coffee process; no more cappuccino; limit different kinds of sugars/creamers; still will have hot chocolate and tea. Laurie will pickup what is needed as her donation; Linda will get cups. Laurie will make a sign Not For Public Use for bathroom.

Remember to complete donation forms for people that donate anything.

Cashiers/PayPal - Jerilyn – she will be our cashier and her daughter will help; Post- It notes needed, Linda will provide. Lisa will be our rover to give breaks to whoever needs one.

RHM – Cindy D – June 13th and June 20 will be our Saturday meetings. Still hoping for new members; Setup for July 4th sale begins at 12:00 on Friday, tablecloths go on earlier so have them ready. Inventory has been completed and items are ready; proposed a clearance table at the Labor Day Sale. Linda will make sure the tables are purchased in time for sale. Carol Allen is going to start the High Country Informant Newsletter with a subscription fee if you can't access on line. Cindy D will prepare an article for this.

Silent Auction – Linda & Susie – will work together on this.

NEW BUSINESS

T-Shirts – Linda – Working with Tonto Printing on our orders; t-shirts, Trucker hats and sweatshirts have been ordered. Request to spend $7,000 on shirts was made, approved by Laurie and second by Beverly to purchase these products.
